ME. INTERNATIONAL LIVESTOCK EXPOSITION

MARQUAND

The International Livestock Exposition—the greatest all-around live stock show in the world, opens at the stock yards in Chicago, Dec. 2, visiting her son in Kansas, and continues one week. More than ten thousand animals, horses, cattle, sheep and swine, will be on display, bought of G. W. Pickett.

The live stock exhibits and judging will hold attention during the day, rival of a fine son at the home of but each evening, the international Mr. and Mrs. Peter Baker at Griswold, show will, as usual, fill the barn. Mrs. Baker was formerly Mrs. Hale.

Elmer Sutles was a business visitor to Fredericksburg Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers of Cascade, and their son Poly Myers of this place.

A new feature will be introduced this year. Commercial vehicles classes have been announced and have attracted more than eighty entries from various firms, of their teams in regular work on city streets, hair companies, bakeries, laundries, etc., have entered their best outfitts in the commercial vehicle and single horse and wagon classes; the Western Motor Company, Chicago Daily News, Chicago Tribune, and such long-distance firms as the Arthur L. Jackson Transfer, Willett Transfer, Olsen Garbage and Broderick Teamming Co., will be represented, either in the wagons or heavy draft classes. It is a practical demonstration of the advertising possibilities of good equipment, and, according to the W. H. White and George Venable Hot Rod Association of America, visit of Spring Valley after transacted business of the day in commercial and motor.
